A leading instrumentalist of the current generation, PARTHA BOSE has an uncanny flair for communicating with listeners world-wide through his SITAR.

Trained for more than 4 decades in the truest traditions of GURU-SHISHYA PARAMPARA by revered GURU, Pandit MONOJ SHANKAR of MAIHAR GHARANA, Partha is credited with a singularly distinct approach to music, reflecting an imaginative synthesis of virtuosity and creativity.

Lauded by connoisseurs for his performances in major music festivals of India (including Dover Lane Conference, Amir Khan Samaroh, Mahamrityunjay Mahotsav, Vasant Rao Deshpande Smruti Samaroh) & international festivals (including Bath Festival, Maastricht Univ festival, Art in Action, Oxford, Black & Gold Series, Nebraska, USA, National Multicultural Festival, Canberra)

Partha divides his time between Kolkata, his home, and rest of the world - performing, composing, teaching, lecturing at countless venues including reputed universities.

International media - including BBC radio, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, German radio, Voice of America, Indian radio & television - have featured Bose in programmes and interviews to share his vision of life and of music.

The Government of India invited Bose to lead a cultural delegation to African countries on the historic occasion of Golden Jubilee of India's Independence.

Partha Bose visualizes MUSIC as a universal language which breaks barriers and reminds us of our SHARED HUMANITY.
